

TFD's Apartment Search Checklist

Brought to you by CreditRepair.com

When you are ready to start hunting for a new apartment, take a moment to run through this checklist to make sure you have everything covered.

MONTHLY HOUSING BUDGET:

Play around with these numbers to make sure that you keep your apartment search in an affordable range for you:

Rent	$ _____
Water	$ _____
Sewer	$ _____
Trash	$ _____
Gas	$ _____
Electricity	$ _____
Cable/Internet	$ _____
Parking	$ _____
Pet rent	$ _____
Renters' insurance	$ _____
Miscellaneous fees	$ _____
Total:	$ _____

ONE-TIME COSTS:

Make sure you have a plan to cover whichever potential one-time costs are applicable to you:

Application fees	$ _____
Security deposit	$ _____
Pet deposit	$ _____
Last month's rent	$ _____
Move-in fees	$ _____
Moving costs	$ _____
Utility deposits	$ _____
Other	$ _____
Total:	$ _____

APPLICATION DOCUMENTS:

Before you tour apartments, gather all of your documentation. That way, you can apply and/or sign a lease on the spot. Landlords typically expect you to have the following:

- ✓ Photo ID
- ✓ Proof of income
(2+ paystubs, most recent tax return, employer contact info)
- ✓ Previous addresses (last three locations or five years)
- ✓ Personal check (or other accepted payment method for the application fee)

Pro tip: Landlords will also likely run a check on your credit history as part of the application process. CreditRepair.com can help make sure your score is in tip-top shape before you apply.

QUESTIONS FOR APARTMENT TOUR:

Here are the questions we recommend you ask, as well as blank lines for you to write down questions of your own:

- Which utilities does the apartment complex cover? Are they included in rent or in addition to rent?
- Which utilities need to go in my name?
- What are your rules regarding pets? How much is the pet deposit and rent?
- What are the accepted payment methods for rent? What is the grace period?
- What are the policies regarding subleasing or breaking a lease?
- What are the guest policies?
- Are there any amenities in this community?
- How do I submit maintenance requests? How long does it usually take for those to be handled?
- Where is the nearest bus stop/train station?
